 Narrative: RP called from Bristol Elder Services Protective Services division requesting assistance checking the welfare of a female at the location. RP reports the female's son, who also resides there, is not allowing them access to speak to the female over the phone or in person. The RP received a report that the son may be withholding medical care and are following up on the report.
 Narrative: Ofc. McCune reports the female is fine, her son would not answer the phone, and can be combative with the service because he believes she is having tests she doesn't need to incur a high monetary charge.
